Ardstraw Barn is a self catering four star house situated to explore and set in an area of outstanding beauty in West Ulster commanding panoramic views of the Sperrins and Donegal hills. The Barn has been carefully reconstructed from local stone giving the building charm and appeal. It is surrounded by wooded hills and less than an hour from Lough Erne and the beaches of Donegal and is well placed for walking, cycling, fishing and horse-riding and is close to numerous sites of historical archaeological and ecclesiastical interests.
